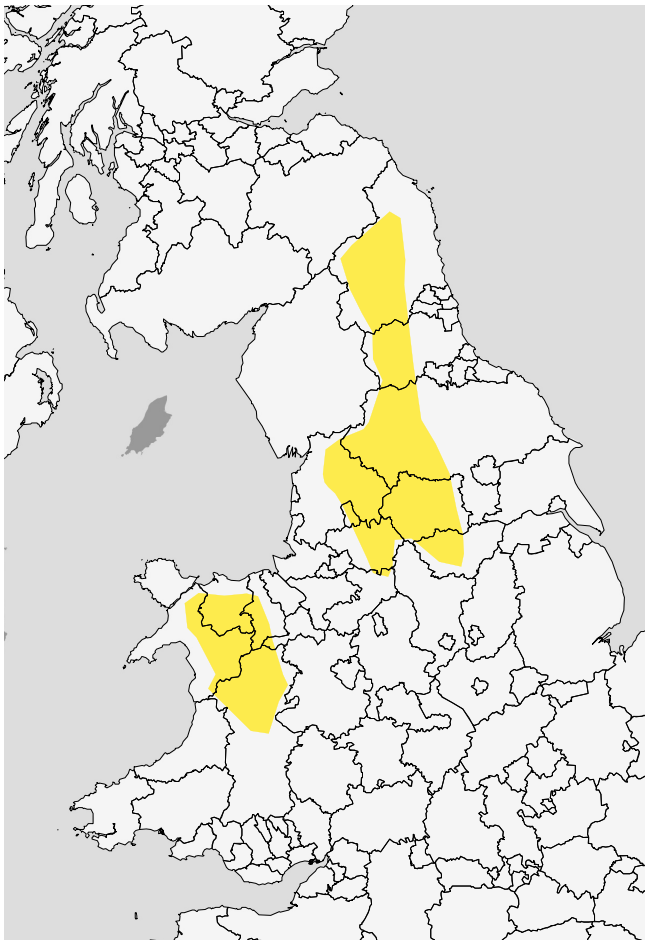
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Sat 16 Mar 2019 and
23:59 Sat 16 Mar 2019



Heavy, persistent rain is expected to affect parts of Wales and northern England on Saturday, with the potential for some flooding.

What to expect

- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is possible

Further details

A developing area of low pressure will bring heavy rain on Saturday. The largest rainfall totals are expected across the higher ground of north Wales where over 100 mm could fall, this also accompanied by strong winds. Elsewhere within the warning area, 40-70 mm is expected.

Reason for update

The warning area has been adjusted northwards, removing parts of south Wales and Derbyshire and including more of the far north of England.
